For more than six months letters have been received from all parts of the country by the postoffice and city authorities protesting that the company was not what it was represented to be; that it was collecting money and making no loans. Inspector Stewart has been working on the case for four months. He found that the concern had agents in every State in the Union who were selling the $20,000,000 of stock the company had for sale. These agents were being sent circulars and decuments showing the association to a deputy marshal. One of the attention of the case Lewis F. Mortimer, general manager and secretary, was apparently the responsible man and handled the cash, received in large amounts every day. Stewart visited the company's office frequently, disguised as a letter-carrier, in order to secure evidence. It sold shares for 50 cents each with monthly shares for 50 cents each with monthly payments for ninety-six months of $11.05. At the end of the time a $1000 loan would be paid for. Then there was a 'membership' fee of $30, an 'appraisement' free of $20, $45 for three months payment in advance, thus making $95. The money never came, and we wrote to Chicago to learn what was the trouble. Finally Prof. Ellwood of Weslyan University, who was a heavy investor, came to Chicago to investigate. Manager Mortimer seemed to be such a fine business man and gave such assurances that the money would be forthcoming, that Elwood went back satisfied, but the money never came, and finally I laid the case before the postoflice authori-

Inspector Stewart and District Attorney Milchrist went over the con-cern's books and found that seventeen legitimate loans had been made in legitimate loans had been made in as many different States. These, it would seem, were made to allure other investors. No records of any other loans could be found, although the books show that money had been received from hundreds of people received from hundreds of people in places where a single loan was placed. A rough estimate of the amount received is $175,000 in the year and a half the association has been in existence. The books show that the association had agents in all States, but the most active were in Omahs, Denver, Des Moines, Portland, Or., Galveston, Olympia, San Francisco and Minneapolis. These agents transmited hundreds of dollars daily in checks, drafts, money orders and registered letters. Until within a few months it is said the concern did a heavy business in Philadelphia, but it appears that the authorities there made inquiries which resulted in the manager leaving. manager leaving.

Mortimer seemed to be the leading spirit in the enterprise, and at once incorporated the concern with a capital of $20,000,000. He was a good manager, and soon had money flowing in at a rapid rate. Everything went smoothly until the closing of the Philadelphia branch, when Mortimer came back here and began quarteling with back here and began quarreling with his business associates. WHAT THE PRISONERS SAY. Downing and Tollman both admitted that enormous sums had been taken in, but asserted that they were not "in it." Both alleged that they never received more than a small salary out of the affair. Downing added: "Mortimer got it all. We started in what I believed to be an honest building and loan business. I believed Mortimer to be an honest man as I had known to be an honest man as I had known him in the insurance business a number of years previous." Downing, whe came here from Peoria, refused to talk further about the work of the association. He is a rather poorly-dressed man, and does not look as though he had been sharing in the enormous profits. Vice-President Tollman, on the contrary, looks extremely prosperous, although asserting that he made nothing from the association. He added that several weeks ago he and Downing decided to send out circulars to the stockholders to "see if some set-tlement could not be reached." They were discussing these negotiations when arrested. Tollman admitted that since the association's formation hs knew of $81,000 having been received. THE SMOOTHY SMILED. Inspector Stewart said that he was well satisfied that both the president and vice president are not so innocent as they pretend. "Both got badly bit-ten," said he, "but both were in the deal and knew all about the swindling going on. recommend the approval of the same.

A GENERAL KICK.

Councilman Innes renewed his objection to the approval of these demands on the same grounds set forth at the last meeting and expressed surprise that the Finance Committee should have approved them without investigation. There was evidently a lack of backbone somewhere.

This brought Councilman Turts to his feet and in reply he said he had signed the report of the Finance Committee and believed it was right that these men should be paid for their services.

As far as members of the Finance Committee are concerned, it was not their business to run around the wards to do detective work. The only testimony which had come before this Council was the say-so of a member of this Council was the say-so of a member of this Council was the say-so of a member of this Council was the say-so of a member of this Council was the say-so of a better for the gentleman had he a little more head and less spinal column.

Councilman Innes retorted warmly that some people had too much head aiready, but to this saily the chairman of the Finance Committee did not reply.

Councilman McGarry expressed it as his opinion that some one was barking up the wrong tree. It should first be ascertained whether or not the views of the Council had been communicated to the men by the Street Superintendent, who employed them and was responsible for them. He was in favor of approving these demands, as the men had earned their money and were entitled to it.

Councilman Reese, in his most sarcastic vein, remarked that if the gentlemen who were opposing this, desire to distinguish themselves, let them get after a little larger game. He thought the Council was stooping very low to persecute poor men in this way. He directed the attention of members to the fact that special policemen were employed contrary to the ordinance of retrenchment. He surgested that they whip along for awhile on that scent.

Councilman Innes repiled to this thrust very energetically and at some length; but finally, upon, motion each occasion.

A number of bids for various city work were opened, read and referred to their respective committees.

THE BANKERS HEARD FROM. J. Frankenfield and H. W. Hellman ap-peared at this juncture, and upon being peared at this juncture, and upon being granted an audience, the former announced that he appeared on behalf of the California and Farmers' and Merchants' banks and the State Loan and Trust Company, to ask the Council to reopen the matter of the special tax or license against those banks, ite feit that the Council in fixing those licenses had no intention of doing anyone in injustice; but upon investigation he and his co-leagues had found that it would levy discriminately. They had no desire to evade any just traxtion, but merely wished to equalize this matter, and therefore asked that it be referred to the Finance or some other committee for a full investigation.

Councimman Tufts said he would like to ask Mr. Frankenfield for some of his reasons why this matter should be reopened, and in what direction the license was unjust.

Mr. Frankenfield replied that the reasons were that they understood that the license was based on the amount of capital stock and surplus of each bank. This was not a fair basis, because some of the banks had part of their capital stock invested in real pipes, etc.

The City Attorney, on motion of Councilman Summerishd, was requested to present an ordinance for the paving of the south side of Aliso street between Los Angeles and Alameda streets with bituminous lime rock, in accordance with specifications No. 1.

The report of the City Attorney was then up and disposed of as follows:

CITY ATTORNEY'S REPORT.

To the honorable the Council of Los Angeles city—Gentlemen: I have pre-pared and present herewith a contract with pared and present herewith a contract with George H. Kimball to furnish hay as ordered; also a contract with J. Genelli to lay pipe in zanja No. 3 as ordered. Received and filed.

In the matter of the petition of the Los Angeles, Utah and Atlantic Railway Company for a deed to certain lands south of Downey avenue, I advise that said petition be denied. Adopted.

In the matter of the ordinance for the opening of Los Angeles street the City Engineer has been unable to furnish me with the description of land to be taken, and I will therefore require one week's further time for this oruliance. Granted.

In reply to the series of interrogatories propounded by Mr. Innes regarding water and water works in general:

propounded by Mr. Innes regarding water and water works in general:
Question: As to the power of the city to condemn the Citizens'swater works under the law of eminent domain.
Answer: It has that power.
Question: Can the city purchase or lease the said water works, and if so by what methods other than by agreement with the company.
Answer: It can purchase or lease, but not otherwise than by agreement with the company.
Question: Can the city compel said water company to furnish pipe, hydrants, water, etc.?
Answer: No.

water, etc.?
Answer: No.
While according to the terms of the lease of this company it is required to furnish sufficient water and hydrants, the only remedy the city has is to forfeit its fran-provides that in case notice has not been given to sever the same the city may purchase the works of the company; but as the city has given formal notice to terminate the lease this provise is inoperative. In my opinion the cheapest and quickest way to acquire the works of this company is by condemnation. While upon this subject I desire to call the Council's attention to the fact that the City Water Company is refusing to comply with the terms of the ordinance adopted by the Council's attention to the fact that the City Water Company is refusing to comply with the terms of the ordinance adopted by the Council for this year and that I have been informed by an officer of that company that they will refuse to be bound by the rates established by the ordinance. I am in receipt of complaints every day in regard to the matter, and as we have already instituted suit against the City Water Company to forfeit its works by reason of overcharging, I think we should also institute suit against the City Water Company for the same reason.

Referred to the Committee of the Whole on motion of Councilman Tufts.

In the matter of the petition of Edward Bouton for a quit claim deed to a wedge-shaped lot between block 42 of Ord's survey and the Abila tract, and having a frontage on both Yaie and Adobe streets, I have made a c-reful examination of the abstract submitted by Mr. Bouton and find that Mr. Bouton has no title of record to said lot. I would therefore advise that the Land Committee be requested to carefully examine into the possession of said lot and determine whether or not the same has been in the actual undisturbed possession of any party other than the city for over live years, and to report fully upon fences, improvements and the cultivation of said land.

Adopted.

THE PUBLIC MARKET. The draft of an ordinance designating a part of Los Angeles street to be used as was read, and upon motion of Councilman Summerland the ordinance was adopted. On motion of Councilman Rees the City Engineer was instructed to ascertain by actual survey whether or not Breed street, between the north line of Michigan avenue and a point 400 feet south of Brooklyn avenue, has sufficient fail to require cobble gutters as now graded.

and a point 400 feet south of an element as sanished and point 400 feet south of a council man Rhodes, the City Water Company was requested to lay a large main on Pico street, from Figueroa west to Alvarado street.

The usual batch of requisitions for supplies for the various departments were allowed in accordance with the recommendation of the Supply Committee, but, as at the its meeting, that for the board of the horse used by the Chief of the Fire Department caused a debate, but no action was taken, owing to the absence of the Chief, who was the only person who could explain matters.

First—A provision that said road shall carry policemen and firemen free of charge while on duty.

Second—A provision requiring the road to pay the regular city license as imposed by ordinance on each car before the 15th of December in each year.

Third—That the latter part of sec. 4 be changed to read as follows:

ABOUT NICARAGUA.

In other columns of THE TIMES tolay, Mr. G. E. Bailey, special correspondent of the Chicago Inter Ocean, gives us an interesting talk on Nicaragua and the Nicaraguan canal

As Mr. Bailey is a civil engineer of thorough education as well as a trained newpaper man, his ideas are both prac tical and pointed. He has just completed a tour of Nicaragua, traveling along the Mosquito Coast a cance and crossing the isthmus on the proposed line of excavation afoot. He has enjoyed, therefore, unusually good facilities for and square look into the eyes of Fate. observation. ENTERED AT LOS ANGELES POSTOFFICE AS SECOND-CLASS MATTER vantage which the successful accom plishment of this great Nicaraguan project will be to them.

It means a revolution in the freightcarrying trade of the Pacific Coast; it means an absolute guarantee against high prices by any transcontinental railroad or any combination of such roads; it means, not only a stimulus to all lines of production, but a great augmentation of commerce and the establishment of new industries which as yet we have hardly set our hopes upon. In short, it means as great a stimulus to the development of the Pacific Coast as the opening of the first transcontinental railway meant.

Mr. Bailey tells some interesting things about Nicaragua, its people and its productions. One of the curious points which he brings out is that the aristocratic classes supply their tables almost wholly with canned produce imported from the United States. In a land producing the finest tropical and semi-tropical fruits spontaneously. THE story comes by telegraph of an they eat the canned and dried unsuccessful conspiracy to blow up the fruits of California. Nay, more, they would consider it an insult to have their own pineapples, bananas, mangoes, etc., placed on a hotel table before them. Queer people! Queer customs! But then, California can stand that sort of thing if Nicaragua can.

Mr. Bailey brings out in strong light the great chances for profitable trade direct between California and Nicaragua. When our pears and peaches sell for a real (70 cents of our money) per can, there is a strong incentive to furnish the goods direct from this Coast instead of sending them around by way of Chicago, New Orleans and Greytown.

The interview with Mr. Bailey is well worth reading, and it may stir up a good many practical ideas.

STILL KICKING AGAINST THE IN-EVITABLE.

The somnolent and retrogressive Herald, "begging the question" as usual, insists that THE TIMES is "plotting against the whites," so to speak when it intimates that the general trend of business in Los Angeles is toward the south and the west: that it is within the probabilities that some day Broadway may become a popular retail street, or that the palm may even go to Hill, Olive or Grand avenue.

The most casual observer of the development of Los Angeles cannot help seeing that the trend of development is strongly in the direction indicated. At one epoch in the history of the city its business was done almost exclusively above the old Plaza and little way down Los Angeles street. When the Pico House was built on Main street, below the Plaza, it was something of a new departure. At later epoch - and that not more than fifteen years ago-practically all of the retail trade was concentrated on Main street, between Temple Block and the Plaza. During the rapid growth of the boom, business took a jump to the south and westward, going down Main to Fourth street, and down Spring to Sixth, and taking something of a foothold on

Now it is only what everybody recog nizes as a fact when we say that business has failed to hold its own on Main tanned and made up into boots and street from Temple Block to the Plaza, ness house on Main street, between First and Third, which can be rented for $100 to $150 a month, would com mand $300 to $450 a month if it could be transported to Spring street directly

And what do we find in Spring street today? Some handsome and commodious blocks; a good many unpretentious though fair buildings, and more inadequate one-story affairs, there for revenue only. As stated, the rents obtained for quarters on this street, good, bad and indifferent, are three, four. six, or ten times what commodious places of business on other streets can be rented for. What is the natural sequence of this sort of thing? Why, that a certain proportion of business men who think they can carry their trade with them, or even a fair part of it, will drift to other streets where they can obtain larger and betterbuilt quarters for less money. Judging from past events they are not apt to drift to the north or eastward, but to the south and west. It is no treason to property-owners or to the best interests of the city to recognize these facts; it is only a fair

Human nature is about the same and, altogether, it will be enough to do it. The next street to hold on the business persimmon. A number of elegant and commodious blocks are already -in place, offering prices. It needs only the erection of a few more such blocks and the novement of a large drygoods establishment into one of them, when the rush will be precipitated. The late J. W. Robinson was shrewd enough to see this, and just before his death concluded the purchase of a Broadway lot on which he purposed erecting a large building for this purpose. Others were with him in the project, and the result would have been the removal of three or four firstclass business establishments. Whether this enterprise is still likely to be carried through we are unable to state, but it is probably held in abeyance for only a short time.

If we recognize this state of affairsas any other unprejudiced and fairminded observer must-and urge the property owners on Broadway to push their interests as well as they can by extending and improving the street, we are only appealing to their own common sense and intelligent self-interest, and at the same time urging what would prove a great benefit to the city generally.

We do not expect, and of course do not desire, that Main or Spring streets will be deserted because this movement commences; but we do believe in the case of Spring street, that if it were relieved somewhat of its present congested condition and put a little more on its mettle to hold its own, a lot of those inferior one-story buildings, not worthy of the street, would come down, and fine buildings would replace them. So there would be gain on both sides by a wholesome rivalry, and the city altogether would be the benefi-

JULES VERNE AND SAN DIEGO.

Some time ago the Express made a most gratuitous and unwarranted attack on the authenticity of Jules Verne's story, "The Californians," the principal scene of the plot, because there was some pleasant description of San Diego and its surroundings, and in California clothes by some local Bohemian. The jealous and narrow Express shows in this great lack of literary intelligence. As throwing some direct light on the source of the French writer's information, as well as attesting the authenticity of the story, there has note from Jules Verne to Mrs. Dr. all-known lady of San Diego, there will be a great opening for trade between Southern California and Central America. Mrs. Dr. Cave—Dean Madam: 1 am publishing at present, in the Educational Magazine of Hetzol, a novel of two volumes, entitled "Mistress Branican." Will you allow me to call your attention to this new work, for the following reasons: Mrs. Branican is a heroine of the type of Lady Franklin, who left such sympathetic remembrances, and I decided to take for the starting point of her voyage your city of San Diego. The photographs which you had kindly sent me aided me materially in describing this beautiful city, but I suppose that I must have made some mistakes which are inevitably committed when we don't see it with our own eyes.

Madam and friend, I regret these errors.

Madam and friend, I regret these errors, and you will please excuse them, and recommending this book to your kind perusal, I beg you to accept the assurance of my highest regards for your family and my respectful consideration for yourself.

Jules Verne.

Our readers may remember that this story is published in simultaneous serials both in France and the United States, and that the American title has been changed to "The Californians" (for reasons explained) and the heroine's name to Mrs. Allaire. This was done with the knowledge and concurrence of the author, and is intended merely as a concession to American ideas of euphony. It will be noticed that Verne, in the letter quoted above, speaks of the novel as composing 'two volumes." A "two column synopsis" would be inadequate. The story is one of engrossing interest and has attracted much attention, somewhat augmented by the assinine attempt of the Express to discredit it. "The Californians" will be concluded Interesting Points about the Nicaragua Country . .

AND THE INTEROCEANIC CANAL

How the Work is Expeditiously and Economically Pushed-A Chat about the County and People.

G. E. Bailey, special correspondent of the Chicago Inter-Ocean, who has just arrived from Central America and is visiting his brother at Colton, made a pleasant call at THE TIMES office Saturday. Mr. Bailey's special mission to the isthmus was to inspect and report upon the status of the Nicaragua Canal project, and he is chock full of this subject and of general information subject and of general information about Nicaragua. Mr. Bailey had just finished an experience in the Pine Ridge campaign when he went to Washington; thence to New Orleans and thence to Nicaragua. He made his way down the Mosquito Coast on the Atlantic side of the isthmus in a Carril cance, and had every advantage for seeing the country. He speaks of it as rich in natural resources and easy of access by reason of its streams. easy of access by reason of its streams. Seventy-five miles up one of these rivers, at Rama, he found five steamers —one from New Orleans, one from —one from New Orleans, one from Pensacola, one from Tampa, one from Philadelphia and one from New York—all loading banauas. They all got loads, too, although by their lively competition they ran the price up from 35 to 85 cents a bunch. One hundred miles up the Great River there is a mahogany district in which a Mr. Emery has established himself. Last year has established himself. Last year has shipped 1800 000 feet of year he shipped 1,800,000 feet of malogany, and this year the shipment will reach 2.250,000 feet. It all goes by steamer to Boston, and thence to the Pullman car works.

THE PEOPLE OF NICARAGUA every other feature of city building the aristocracy, who are Spanish. They are wealthy, owning mostly the coffee plantations, and they live lux-placing or leaving obstacles in its way. There is today, as there has long been, a real need for the expansion of the business center, which is too narrow, from east to west particularly, for the requirements of trade. We repeat that the opening of Broadway north and of First street west are way north and of First street way north and two piers or break-way north and two piers or break-way north and two piers or break-way north and two piers or b pretend to eat the native fruits. Ninesauce, Armour's canned beef in abunsauce, Armour's canned beef in abundance and side dishes of canned asparagus, tomatoes, etc. Nicaragua is not a live-stock producing country itself, and hence there is no tallow or other fat for cheap lights. The wealthy burn kerosene, and poor people sit in the dark after nightfall if they sit up at all. Kerosene commands $8 for a five-rallon can. five-gallon can.

NATIVE FRUITS AN INSULT. "At the hotel at Nicaragua," said Mr. Bailey, "I told the landlord I would like to have some of the native now running as a serial in the SUNDAY ruits on the table. They raise most elegant bananas, mangoes, agua-cacti, san Diego chanced to be selected as we never place those fruits on our tabies, and if I should give them to you my guests would say the landlord was insulting the American gentleman because the novel appeared in this paper, the Express would have it that the story is not by Verne, but that it must have been revamped and dressed charge for it? charge for it.

At another hotel where Mr. Bailey called for native fruits his request was not so politely received. "Do you know what they say here?" said the landlord. "They say that nobody but American hogs eats bananas." Mr. Bailey thinks, now that the Patheir way through New Orleans and down the Atlantic Coast to Greytown, and across the isthmus.

Nicaragua's articles of export are hard woods, dye woods, coffee, ban-snas and rubber. Bice, chocolate and sugar are produced in some quantities, but only for home consumption.

A very desirable exchange of products might be brought about between the two countries, and there is, of course, a considerable trade already. Taking stgamer from San Francisco, it would require only about twenty days to make the trip to Panama, by straight sailing. The steamers stop a whole day at each of the ports below Acapulco, however, and consequently the trip requires about 25 days. Mr. saw Minister Pacheco at Guatemala and was very courteously re-ceived by him. The people of Guatemala are enthusiastic in their praises of Pacheco but they have no words to waste on ex-Minister Mi But the most interesting part of Mr. Bailey's talk was about

The present route of travel is up the

San Juan River, up Lake Nicaragua by steamer its entire length, then by railroad to Lake Managa, across the latter lake by steamer again, and finally by rail to Corinto, on the Pacific Coast

THOROUGH WORK. Mr. Bailey reports that the preliminary work of surveying has been most thoroughly done, as attested by the fact that, for every mile of canal, eighty miles of preliminary line have When it came to actual development the harbor at Greytown had first to re-ceive attention, as it was through this port that all the material and supplies ground north of the harbor and three had to come. "The line of the canal for a width of 500 feet has been cleared of timber from the harbor to the divide, fourteen from the harbor to the divide, fourteen miles away. This alone was a vast undertaking. Only those who have been in the tropics know what the word jungle means. They can form no conception of woods where trees tower 100 to 150 feet in the air, where vines, creepers and lianas and a mass of parasitic foliage hang from the trees in a solid mas, as hard to get through as a western forest well mixed by a cyclone. Imagine the fun of cutting away at such a mass, those of you who hate even the preparation of kindlinghate even the preparation of kindling-wood.

"The dredging force, which includes five dredgers and nine lighters, have not only cleared out the harbor and not only cleared out the harbor and eaten their way out to sea, but have cut out nearly a mile of the real canal. The clear cut of this prism, the uniform depth of water and the huge embankments of sand on either side contrast pleasingly with the old 'show point' on the Panama, where the work was so slovenly done that it was difficult to distinguish the lines of the canal at high water, and at low tide the dirty ditch had no more water than a Jersey mud flat.

The River San Juan, which formerly discharged into Greytown Harbor, had changed its course so that it reached the coast six miles below. Greytown. It next became necessary to excavate the canal in the old bed of the stream so as to open the water-way from Greytown direct. The first fifteen miles from Grevtown is through swamps at the sea level, with only one short di-vide of a mile, through which the heaviest excavation on the route (180 feet) is to be made. The rest of the description may as well be taken from a letter of Mr. Bailey to the San Francisco Chronicle, published August 6, which is very comprehensive and explicit. He says:

WHAT HAS BEEN ACCOMPLISHED. "To sum up, the level of the water surface of that great inland sea, Lake Nicaragua, has been practically extended to with nine miles of the free waters of the Pacific, and to within sixteen and a half of the free water of the Carribbean, without impediment of any kind, a clean level surface of 144 miles out of the total distance of 169.5 between the two oceans. Numerous borings have been made, so that the character of every class of material that must be handled is definitely prepared engineers' estimates are not safe guides. The extra expenses are safe guides. The extra expenses are generally due to unfortunate manage ment and lack of careful preliminar study. The nine miles of road through the jungle, and i wamps, where everything had to be out first on cordurov and then ballasted with sand from the dredges, cost about $40,000 per mile instead of $60,000, as estimated. The telegraph line extendestimated. The telegraph line extending to the government line in the interior cost less than the estimate of $500 per mile. In dredging in the harbor the average has been only 6 cents per yard instead of 25 cents. The most expensive dedging when the Slavin broke down averaged only 14 cents. The breakwaters to the Greytown harbor have been built at about three quarters have been built at about three-quarters of the original expense.

"The management as well as careful surveys has contributed largely to these good results. It has been impressed upon the army of employes that the company is not thereforshow, to dazzle the world by their brilliancy, but are there to work and work hard but are there to work and work hard. The pay-rolls are not made up so as to make this an asylum for incompetents and incorrigibles. Work is paid for at its value in a country where labor is cheap, the climate healthy and living inexpensive. Mr. Menocal works as he worked in our navy, a time for everything and everything done in shipshape order at the proper time. Assistant Chief Engineer Frank Davis works as he worked on the Denver and Rio Grande and on the Canadian Pacific, and the men work as men did when they were building the transcontinental railroads in this land.

A CONTRAST.
"All this is in pleasing contrast to the sad days of the boom along the Panama, where newly-appointed engineers first built for themselves elegant homes, then ordered shiploads of gant homes, then ordered shiploads of machinery, next set men at work, and, last of all, started the transits and levels to see where they were going to. Every one who has been across the isthmus is familiar with the lines where cuts were started and abandoned after vast expenditure, with machinery that was never set up, but left to ruin on the docks and in the sand, with locomotives, cars and derricks half buried in the cuts. How the French storekeepers ever accounted, pine floors, sides and root, with olled pine floors, sides and ceilings to the rooms. Nothing could be cleaner, neater or less expensive, and at the same time adapted to the warm cli-mate. The only difference between the rooms of the highest officers and their clerks and assistants, is in size. The officers' are a little larger. The ornaments are few and such as dear friends will insist on one's putting into his trunk 'just to remember me, my dear, while you are in that horrid "The buildings are Menocal's headquarters, office and officers' quarters, officers' mess and kitchen, laundry, bathhouses, officers' hospital, laborers' hospital, storehouses, stores, carpenter paint and oil shops, railroad head-quarters, foundry, tool shops, machine shops, engine house and the Naviga-tion Company's wharves, storehouses and offices. Certainly this is good work for a party of men who were landed on a barren beach in June, 1889, without shelter, unaccli-mated, dependent on a base of supplies 2000 miles away, and com-munication only by mails that arrived "sometimes, but rarely, semi-occasion-ally;" no harbor, no shelter, no wharves ally;" no harbor, no shelter, no wharves to land machinery. Imagine the work of unloading by lighters from a ship a mile out at sea the necessary locomotives, steam shovels, piledrivers, etc.

It is easy to find fault, and but few give credit for work done. If the work is carried on in the future as in the past few years the canal will be built well built—and at less than the esti-mate of $75,000,000, a sum one-third of that already wasted at Panama, as

AN OPINION VERIFIED.
"One has only to travel across the various routes proposed to appreciate the soundness of the United States Canal Commission, who reported to Congress. It is not true that carefully the Senate in February, 1876, that the Nicaragua route possesses, both for the construction and maintenance of a canal, greater advantages and offers fewer difficulties, from engineering, commercial, climatic and economic points of view than any one of all the other routes."

pestiferous a spot as any on the globe.

When it is remembered that this company was organized in May, 1889, and started work in October et the same year with comparatively limited capital the work already accomplished seems marvelous. It has accomplished seems marvelous. It has expended, up to the present time, about $3,000,000.

TEN MILES OF RAILROAD has been fluished along the line of the canal to furnish transportation. The building of this line through the swamps was very difficult as it was necessary first to lay down cord-du-roi upon which rails were placed, and then the ballasting was brought in on cars. For this purpose the sand dredged out of the harbor was used. The cost of this railroad was estimated at $60,000 per mile, but it has been built for $40,000 per mile. The cost of excavating the harbor was estimated at 25 cents a yard, but it has been done at 6 or 7 cents. Jamaica negroes, who work for very low wages employed exclusively in the rough

By Telegraph to The Times. NEW YORK, Aug. 10 .- By the Associated Press.] Today has been the third of the heated term here and the hottest of the three, with no prospects of a favorable change tomorrow. The local forecast officer says that the mercury bids fair to touch the 1000 mark tomorrow. At 9 a.m. without breeze and with the mercury steadily climbing upward, the air was stifling. At noon the heat was unbearable, and at 3 o'clock the thermometer reached 97°. All the afternoon ambulances were busy carrying people prostrated by the heat to the hospital. Three persons are reported as having been rendered insane by heat. A number of the members of the police force had to leave their posts today. The heat was particularly severe on horses, many being overcome.

The scenes in the tenement district tonight are beyond description. The entire population has deserted the tenements and sought the house tops and streets. Little relief is afforded, however, by this means, as the thick walls are sending forth the heat accumulated during the day. The entire population is looking with foreboding for the dawn of another scorching day.

that is known is that he came to this country eighty-four years ago, when he was 12 years old, with his father. His father was a desperate man and soon after his arrival became involved in some trouble and killed a man or two. A sheriff's posse was sent to arrest the old man, but he resisted and was killed. In less than two years, and before he was 18 years old, he carried out his vow and the entire posse, about fifteen in number, had fallen victims to his deadily aim. This was the beginning of Tom Starr's eventful career. He was now an outlaw and a youthful one at that. He joined a band of the most desperate men in the West, and soon became their leader in their deeds of daring crime. In 1844 and 1845 rewards aggregating $30,000 were offered for his head, but his capture seemed an impossibility, and he defied Cherokee and United States authorities alike.

Starr did a thriving business—stealing negroos. He would steal them in Texas and sell them in Missouri, and then steal another lot in Missouri and run them back to Texas. He formed a business relation with a New Orleans slave-trader, and would meet him at the confluence of the Arkansas and Mississippi rivers and exchange his human merchandise for arms and ammunition.

On one occasion a Mexican betrayed him by leading a sheriff and his posses to the rendezvous on the Canadian River. Part of the band was captured and killed but Tom made his seaspe by swimming tha river in the dead of winter. Starr subsequently followed the Mexican to San Antonio, Tex., and killed him on the streets of that city. With one exception Starr was the most powerful man physically, in the whole Cherokee Nation. His brother-in-law, Bill West, was conceded to be the strongest man in the country. One blow of his sits was almost as deadly as a Winchester bullet. He killed several men by striking them, and the Legislature of the nation recognized its terrible force and passed a law declaring West's flat a deadly weapon, and making it a fellony for him to strike any one with it. West and Starr were boon companions and were partners in many bloody enterprises, but it so happened that these men did not agree later on as they did at first, and as there were big rowards offered for both men Tom decided to put West out of the way, and at the same time get the reward for his death. He picked a quarrel with West and Bill struck at Tom with his first, but the willy savage cluded the blow and at the same time get the reward for his death. As West fell to the ground Starr severed his head from his shoulders with one blow of his knife and put it into a gunny sack. life of outlawry and sued for peace with his tribe. He had become such a with his tribe. He had become such a terror to the Cherokees that they were glad to make peace with him, and accordingly negotiations to this end were begun. Start sent an envoy from his rendezvous on the Canadian River to Tahlequah to represent him before the Cherokee Council, which was then in session. The matter was then in Cherokee Council, which was then in session. The matter was taken up by that body and seriously considered. Arrangements were made whereby Starr was to be forgiven for all his crimes and murders on the condition that he ever afterwards lived in peace with his people and abode by their laws. The proposition was passed by the Legislature and signed by the chief. It was then sent to old Tom and he signed it. Peace was then proclaimed by the council. These facts are substantiated by the records of the nation, and this is probably the only instance in the history where a treaty of peace and amnesty was entered into between an individual and a sovereign nation. individual and a sovereign nation. He said that he and his band went to the nouse of an enemy, and after murdering the whole family with the exception of the infant the latter began crying which annoyed Starr. English wheats have been in slow sale 38@ 9s for red, and 40@41s for ordinary white. Many exchanges are a most empty and bus-iness has been extremely limited. Foreign wheat advanced slightly. In spring grain trading is in favor of holders for barley, oats, pulse and corn, while lentils and rye are stronger. Today English wheat was so scarce as to be practically unquotable. In foreign wheat there was a small advance for spot. Russian wheat is stiffly supported. Samples of American red winter wheat were received today by post, and were eagerly scanned, as a large surplus of that quality of wheat is expected, and has greatly affected the market. A New York dispatch says: "The visible supply of grain in the United States and Canada this side of the Rocky Mountains August 10, 1991 is: Wheat, 17,934,034 bushels; corn, 3.800,447 bushels; oats, 2,103,441 bushels. The increase in wheat is 1,185 931; oats, 30,810; the decrease in corn is 72,910."

The local butter market was not so firm today, owing to the large supplies of e attern butter, several carloads having arrived at the close of last week and not yet being disposed of. Prices, however, remain substantially unchanged.

Eggs were firmer today, and prices advanced 1 to 2 cents for fresh ranch.

While the syndicate plan for taking care of the floating debt of the Union Pacific met with some favor, the very fact that such a syndicate was found neces sary is used by the bears against the stock. The market closed dull and heavy at or near the lowest prices, but with most stocks only slightly changed from Saturday's Government bonds were steady.

CURRENT NOTES. completed.

A horse attached to a light buggy ran away on Colorado street, near Michigan avenue, Sunday afternoon, and a smash-up was barely averted. The driver was a stranger.

Contractor Clark is erecting a stable for James North in the rear of his residence on Orange Grove avenue, near Orange Grove avenue, near Columbia street.

A suggestion was heard on the street that future intending suicides should take their stand near some electric light pole, and await the sure consummation of their desires.

Smoke consumers might be used to od advantage in several districts out town where residents are extensively engaged in burning the grass along the streets. As it is the atmosphere for blocks around is almost suffo-cating. It is rendered bearable, how-ever, by the fact that it is a necessity.

If the weather becomes as hot as it now promises to, Co. B's heroic resolve to march to the encampment at Santa Monica next week, will be abandoned by them collectively. As individuals, however, they will be privileged to tramp it if they so desire.

The tennis tourney at Redondo, commencing tomorrow, will exert a hypnotic influence on many willing Pasadenians. Those already determined to go are: Miss Shoemaker, Mrs. Winslow, Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Vandevort, Mrs. C. S. Martin, and Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Gilmore. This number will no doubt be considerably augmented before the tournament draws to a close.

An exceptional and interesting privilege, of which a large number took advantage, was afforded Pasadenians on Sunday. It was granted by the Rev. Persons to the number of thirteen were received into the Methodist Church on Sunday. They were as follows, five of whom were baptized at the morning service: Lyman W. Davenport, C. H. Randall, Charles Irish, Harry Hampden, Mrs. Emma Hampden, Jessie Buckins, W. S. C. England, Nanny Shafer, Mr. and Mrs Charles Kimbley, Mrs. Celia L. Davenport, Ettie Welsh and Mrs. Maggie Mason. This rounds out the number of new members enrolled so far during the present conference year to 120.

A horse belonging to Mr. Bayliss of St. Louis was left tied in front of Breiner & Crosby's market on East Colorado street, last night about 5 o'clock. He was hitched to a buggy which was struck by a street car as it turned the corner and forced against his haunches. The horse jumped, and, breaking the bridle, ran wildly up Colorado street. He turned on Marengo avenue and was caught there. The only damage done was the breaking of one wheel of the buggy. A dog which was in the buggy at the time must have been thrown out and knocked into the eternal heavens, for he has not yet been discovered.

The Bridegroom Had a Dog License. People who have lived in cities where marriage licenses are required often have great difficulty in understanding the system in vogue here. They cannot realize that the services of a minister or alderman are all that is necessary when the parties have reached the proper age. A German whose knowledge of the English language is limited wished to get married not long ago, and being under the impression that a license was necessary he started out to secure one. He wandered around the postoffice and the various municipal and county buildings for an hour or two, unable to find the place where licenses were to be had. Finally he managed to explain to a policeman that he wanted a license, although he was unable to make it clear what kind of a one he was after. The officer directed him to the place where dog licenses are issued, and the happy suitor paid his fee and received the precious paper.

That evening the German and his blushing affianced went to the house of minister to have the Gordian knot tied. When the bridegroom proudly handed over his dog license the worthy pastor could hardly perform the ceremony for suppressed laughter. The couple, however, were none the less firmly married because the paper allowed the husband to keep a dog instead of to wed a wife .-New York Tribune.

SAN BERNARDINO CO. County Seat Municipal Circles

LET UP IN THE FIGHT. NO

Still Stirred up.

Another Lot of Bharges and Counter Charges-Interesting Budgets from Riverside and Redlands.

SAN BERNARDING. !TIMES' agency at the Stewart Hotel news-stand, where subscriptions, advertisements and news items may be left.

The merry war in municipal circles still continues. The end is not yet and it is uncertain where the terminus of the difficulty will be. Everybody is excited, and the general feeling is that it will all result in good. The city and its taxpayers are really losing nothing by this agitation. THE TIMES arrived this morning it was eagerly bought up and within twenty minutes after the train arrived not a copy was to be Fayette Dyer, are located at Catalina for a period...Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Madison have returned to Pasadena could secure. Trustee Whitney was could secure. Trustee Whitney was seen by a Times reporter and asked about the charge made by the City Engineer to the effect that he had fur nished the city with certain supplies since he had held his official position. Mr. Whitney denied the allegation made. He said that prior to the time made. He said that prior to the time he was elected as a member of the board of rrustees he had furnished the city with stakes. A bill for stakes furnished prior to his election as a trustee had been pre-sented after he was elected, and was sented after he was elected, and was approved and paid by the board. In fact he admitted that after his election stakes had been secured for the city during a time that he was absent from town. These stakes he had presented no bill for and did not intend to do so. He gave them to the city as a free and volgare them. gave them to the city as a free and volgave them to the city as a free and vol-untary gift. City Engineer Finkle, however, makes a contrary statement and it has now been narrowed down to a question of veracity between the two officials. Mr. Finkle claims that since Mr. Whitney's election to office he (Whitney) has furnished the city with stakes. He asserts that he him-self has ordered two wagonloads of him. Mr. Finkle further alleges that on Sunday morning there were a number Sunday morning there were a number of stakes at Whitney's planing-mill be longing to the city, and which had been paid for. These stakes are now missing and cannot be found any-where. If, as Mr. Finkle claims, they were the property of the city, and if they have been stolen, somebody is liable. These allegations are being made very freely on all sides and there will be a final day of reckoning. Somebody will be ultimately forced to prove some of these stories. There will be a complaint filed between now and Wednesday to oust Mr. Whitney from office on the ground that he, too, has office on the ground that he, too, has been interested in city contracts. Ezra Crossman, who is the plaintiff in the suits that have been commenced against Trustees Lesher and Kenniston will be asked to sign the complaint against Trustee Whitney and in case he refuses the claim is made that he will have placed himself in an inconsistant rousing.

ciaim is made that he will have placed himself in an inconsistent position. There is now a movement on foot to organize an indignation meeting of citizens for the purpose of denouncing the proceedings that have been commenced to oust Trustees Lesher and Kenniston. If this meeting is held it will probably be called for Wednesday evening. Trustee Whitney could not will probably be called for Wednesday evening. Trustee Whitney could not be found Saturday evening although the City Marshal made a determined search for him. It is charged that Mr. Whitney was in hiding for the purpose of breaking the quorum on the board of trustees. It is alleged that he was at the house of Supervisor Victor. Mr. Victor, when seen yesterday and asked about the matter, refused either to deny or affirm it. He said that any kind of charges were liable to be made against him now, and he would deny nothing. The position in this whole subject occupied by the Artificial Stone Improvement Company is still a matter of conjecture. The facts seem to be that the corporation put in a sewer system for which tion put in a sewer system for which they were to receive $71,000. This sewer system, as built, the City Engineer claims is defective, rotten and worthless. He says that wherever and whenever it has been examined it has been found to be absolutely useless.

the effect of vitiating the contract for the sale of the road. This being the case Mr. Neuberg, as one of the principal owners of the road, would be vitally interested in ousting the present members of the board, inasmuch as it is a fact that as long as Lesher, Kenniston and Mee are on the board there will be no steam power used to propel motor cars down E street. The job, it is alleged, was put up for Maj. Kenniston to resign at the Saturday night meeting and W. E. Lightfoot was to have been elected as his successor. Owing to the fact that no quorum would have been present, had the Major resigned, the resignation was not put in. It will been present, had the Major resigned, the resignation was not put in. It will not be now. He announces that he will fight the matter to the bitter end. Trustee Lesber will do the same. In the meantime the battle will rage.

Additional information of the Bear Valley murder came in yesterday, the murderer—Joaquin Garcia—arriving in charge of Messrs. Butler, Johnson and Freetield, and being jodged in jail.

A man named Arthur Jones came along at the time in a boat and took aboard the struggling man, who proved to be Garcia, and brought him to shore. A long time was then spent in searching for Rogers's body, who it was apparent, had been killed and thrown in the lake. Garcia was taken to Knight the lake. Garcia was taken to Knight and Metcalf's and turned over to Gus-Knight, who afterward handed him to the men who brought him in. The body of Rogers has not been recovered as yet, but diligent search is being prosecuted. It is believed that the murdered man, in a quarrel with Garcia, was struck by the latter with an oar, and sinking to the bottom never rose again. Rogers was a young man of 20 years, well known in Rediands, where he lived for a number of years, and is a son of Capt W. G. Rogers. Garcia is a man possessed of revengeful instincts, and has had trouble with fellow-laborers on the Bear Valley ditch work, from which employment he was recently discharged, after an attempt to brain a fellow-employé with a shovel. A brother of young Rogers started to Bear Valley on receipt of the news, with the intention of slaying the murderer, but fortunately—or unfortunately—took a different trail than the one used by the officers. There is much excitement in Redlands and vithe lake. Garcia was taken to Knight and Matcalf's and turned over to Gue Beach.

A lady who is now in this city, having recently come here from Sau Diego, will soon apply to the courts for a legal separation from her husband. Such cases are not of an infrequent occurrence in most places, and the city of San Bernardino is not to be honored with the proceedings because divarces are more easily obtained here honored with the proceedings recause divorces are more easily obtained here than elsewhere, but simply for the reason that the lady in question has friends here, and came-to seek their advice and assistance. About five years ago Mrs. Cecilia Lathrop was a widow, reputed to have been left well provided for at the death of her husband. She was living in a small town

Her friends warned her that his motives were the most mercenary, but his suave manners and persistent wooing won her hand. He indignantly refuted the allegation when he was informed, as a precautionary measure by his betrothed, that she had no money, and swore as lovesick swains are alleged to swear that she alons was the object of his devotion. The widow's statement was only

Her husband's affairs were badly tangled — he had had partners and held shares had had partners and held shares in a corporation—and recourse to the courts was necessary to straighten them out. The children being minors, a month's allowance was ordered for them, but the widow got nothing. Mrs. Lothrop had, how-ever, a considerable amount of silver-ware, jewelry of her own and some which had belonged to her husband and which was given to the children.

In the course of time Mrs. Lathrop became Mrs. Hunter. Not many months passed before the newly-accepted protector gave up his situation

Although successful in securing employment as clerk or bookkeeper in many different places, he almost invariably called on his wife to pawn some articles of jewelry to provide means to keep body and soul together every time he made a change of base, and the base of supply was soon drained. He then appropriated what he could beg from the allowances of the children. His moves became more frequent, and his retaining of a situation more uncertain. In

The sewer system which the company built has, by a resolution of the present board, been rejected. Nevertheless the Stone Improvement Company has already collected about $50,000 on the work that they have done.

Another story told on the atreet yesterday afternoon was to the effect that when the Redlands motor was sold to the Southern Pacific the parties selling had guaranteed to give an entrance on Third street. The story was that the Southern Pacific was not satisfied with the entrance obtained over the private right-of-way, and that this feeling of dissatisfaction might have the effect of vitiating the contract for the sale of the road. It is a very sad case, and will doubtless be looked into by some of the charitable institutions of the city.

An incipient fire on Second street yesterday afternoon caused momentary excitement. A canvas awning suddenly blazed up, and when the ropes burned through fell to the sidewalk. A well-directed stream of water from within the Burtick Block, where the fire occurred, soon put out the blaze. The origin of the fire is attributed to one of two causes—either electric wires or a lighted cigar thrown from the office of the Electric railway offices just above the awning.

NEW CARS FOR THE TERMINAL

Big Business for Coronado-Conductors as Great Travelers-General, Local and Personal Railroad Mention.

The Santa Fé overland train, due in Los Angeles Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock, did not arrive here until 8:30 yesterday morning. Onite a thrilling accident was the cause of belating the train, and the particulars, as obtained yesterday from a passen ger, show that a train load of people expe rienced a narrow escape. While the train was running westward about ten miles this side of Flagstaff, Ariz., the locomotive struck a cow and at once jumped the track. The engine in going into the ditch dragged with it the mail car, baggage and express car, one coach and a Puliman sleeper. The cars were jammed up pretty badly, and had they been better loaded with passengers a good many would doubtless have been killed. As it happened, some of the pass-engers were more or less bruised, but none sustained serious injuries. The engineer sustained serious injuries. The engineer and fireman both jumped, escaping with some trifling bruises and scratches. The railroad officials at this end of the line yesterday had no knowledge of the accident, save that something up the road had laid out the overland. The passengers describe the wreck as having been a bad one for the rolling stock, but miraculous in respect to the small amount of physical properties. a bad one for the rolling stock, but intractions in respect to the small amount of physical injury it caused. The forward cars of the train were badly smashed and the engine was damaged considerably. The track was cleared and traffic yesterday was carried on as usual.

A rather curious practice is followed by some of the Baltimore and Ohio engineers on the eastern divisions who are noted for making a smooth stop with a passenger train. Just before the train stops, and while the brakes are still on, the throttle is opened and the engine pulls out hard for two or three revolutions. This tends to overcome the high rate of retardation which always occurs at the last part of a stop and makes the rate of stopping more uniform.

A Boston and Maine passenger conductor boats that in a quarter of a century he has traveled 1,039,160 miles. This statement has brought out several other records. Conductor Joseph Missimer of the Reading has covered 186 miles daily since 1893, and for two years he made 211 miles daily. This credits him with 1,597,720 miles. Conductor S. G. LACROSSE.

Preparations for the Riverside-Los Angeles Natch. Last night a large and enthusiastic meeting of the local Lacrosse Club was held at their rooms on West First street. The object of the meeting was to make final preparations for the coming match between Riverside and Los Angeles, which will take place at Agricultural Park next Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock. The president, Dr. Kanpon, occupied the chair, and various Kanon, occupied the chair, and various committees upon reception, etc., were appointed. It was decided that the uniform of the club shall consist of a black guernsey and light knickerbockers together with white hats. It was further decided that invitations be issued to all athletic associations, as also to the civic officials, and that a general invitation to the public to be present and witness the first lacrosse match ever held in this city, be extended through the press. The members are determined to leave nothing undone in order to entertain the visiting club and their friends in a thorough and cordial manner. Arrangements are being made to meet them at the depot and escort them to their hotel, where they will be dined and cared for. It will be remembered that on the 20th of June last the Los Angeles club went to Riverside and were accorded a most enthusiastic reception by both the club and people of that enterprising city. Over 2000 ladies and gentlemen were present and greatly appreciated the efforts of the players. The match resulted in favor of Riverside by the close score of 2 to 1. The local team feel confident that this time they will reverse the former result.

THE EAST SIDE.

The Dog-catchers Again at Work-People up in Arms. The deg-catchers, to the number of five, were again on the East Side yesterday, and each one of the fellows showed up as saucy as ever, notwithstanding the fact that they had to return a tagged dog that they stole from a yard Saturday. The people are up in arms, and several gentlemen, who are crack shots with shotguns, are looking for them, and will make it exceedingly warm for the first catcher who attempts to yank a dog from a yard, whether he is tagged or not. They have learned that they have the same right to puncture a dog-catcher that they have to do up a burglar who is caught in their house, and they don't propose to fool with them to any great extent. There is a good side to the dog-catcher, however, as was illustrated yesterday. A half-witted boy and one of the meanest curs that ever lived have been a holy terror on the East Side for months past. The dog is fully as mean as the boy, and between the two they manage to keep several neighborhoods in an uproar. Wherever they go their presence is soon made known, and yesterday they came near burning the Buena Vista-street bridge. The boy, it is believed by the officers, made two attempts, and the dog seemed to understand what was going on, for when the East Side firemen reached the bridge after the alarm was given, he did all in his power to keep the boys away from the fire.

After the second attempt was made to burn the bridge the dog-eatcher came along and the boys put them after the wild boy's dog. They gathered the brute in, and the chances are that the youngster will stay at home for a while as he does not get in mischief unless he has a dog with him.

Another gang of boys were in swimming above the Buena Vista-street bridge yesterday afternoon. Two or three of them were almost grown, and had the police succeeded in catching them they would have spont the night, at least, in the pen. The law-breakers saw the officers at a distance, however, and managed to get away, but Officer McKeag captured one of the boys' shoes and held it at the police station for identification. for the first catcher who attempts to yank a dog from a yard, whether he is tagged or

A Funny Scene for Everybody but the Active Participants, An amusing scene took place on Regent street near Sixth yesterday morning. They had placed the bees in the wagon all right and the old man was about to drive off, when one of the busy little workers managed to make his way through the box, and quicker than a flash several hundred very active bees were hard at work on the horses, the old maids and mama and strange to say they were not after honey. On the other hand they were working their business ends for all that was out, and in less than ten seconds that family was making noise enough to arouse the whole heighborhood. The old man stood by the horses and managed to get them away from the wagon, or there is no telling what damage might have

Dr. Woh's life work has been from early youth one of persistent and untiring observation, study and investigation, as fully as lay in his power to perfect himself in all branches of the art of healing human sickness and disease. Born in China, of influential parents, of a family whose ancestors have been for generations deservingly renowned as leading physicians, Dr. Woh naturally followed in the footsteps of his fathers. In China he has practiced his profession for several years, being at one time a physician in the Imperial Hospital, and in America for a long time his great number of patients, his wonderful and many cures, and the great list of letters from grateful and thankful patrons now prove him to be a remarkable and successful healer of sickness and all diseases.
